

Stanhope Barrington C of E Primary School

SEND Parent Questionnaire Results – February 2018

- 72% of parents responded to the questionnaire.
- 100% of respondents clearly understood why their children had a School Support Plan.
- 100% of respondents knew that their child's School Support Plan was reviewed every term.
- 100% of respondents knew that Mrs Cross was the SENCO.
- 70% of respondents knew that Mrs Stancliffe was the governor with responsibility for SEND.
- 100% of respondents felt that they were given the opportunity to meet to discuss their child's progress.
- 100% of respondents felt that the contents of the School Support Plan were clearly explained at meetings.
- 100% of respondents felt their child's targets were reasonable and achievable.
- 100% of respondents understood how their child was being supported in school.
- 100% of respondents felt that they were kept up to date with their child's progress and education.
- 100% of respondents felt that they were given advice and suggestions for how they could help their child at home.
- 100% of respondents felt that their views and opinions were valued by the school.
- 100% of respondents felt that their child's views were valued (when age appropriate).
- 100% of respondents felt comfortable approaching the SENCO with any queries or concerns.
- 100% of respondents felt that the school supports their child to reach their potential.
- 100% of respondents did not have any suggestions for improvements.
- 100% of respondents felt that they have sufficient meetings and information.
- 70% of respondents were aware of the Local Offer.

Quotes:

“Since day one Stanhope School has provided my child and myself with the support we needed, he has settled and is very happy in school.”

“My child’s School Support Plan is explained step by step and I am informed of changes.”

“When I pick my child up, his teacher is always available to discuss his education.”

“I am given great advice on how I can support my child to progress.”

“I was listened to and my views and opinions were taken into account.”